

Freetimes Café Showcase

Oct 30, 2009 @ 8.30 P.M.

Please join the David Henman Band as your host for an evening of great entertainment. We have a talented line-up for this show.

Chip Yarwood & SeeWhySound

A master of many instruments, Chip plays Flute, Guitar, Kalimba and banjo. Throughout his life as a musician and composer Chip has worked in many musical genres. As an inspiring flutist and pocket guitarist he brings groove and colourful melody to the band. SeeWhySound's ambient world music is certainly a treat.

David Henman Band

Originally from Nova Scotia, David Henman was one of the founding members of April Wine, along with his brother Ritchie, cousin Jim and surviving member Myles Goodwyn. David was with the band from its inception in 1969 until 1973. He played on the first three albums, and one of his songs, "Drop Your Guns", was a top-forty hit in Canada, resulting in David receiving three platinum and two gold albums. David's latest catalogue of material is laced with Celtic, Latin and roots rock rhythms.

Jamie Manov & KEITH McDonald are The Whiners:

{whinersmusic n. happy/sad life experiences in 4/4 time -}

Influenced by The Beatles, the Stones and other classic rockers, the duo features original & sometimes quirky tunes with occasional covers to taste. This is V.3.0 of the band - in play since 1998 - offering up a somewhat more "robust" flavour or, as one person commented, "What word would you use to describe a band that makes you tilt your head, scrunch up one eye, stick out your tongue and tap your toes all at the same time?"

Dan McLean Jr.

Dan McLean Jr's first album, "Soul Café", was released in 2008, featuring richly-dynamic, powerfully-emotional renditions of deserving soul songs by Hall & Oates, Tower Of Power, The Staple Singers, Sly & The Family Stone and more, all stripped back to voice and acoustic guitar.

"If I were a man, THAT is the voice I'd want!" - Lindsay L. "I swear you and Daryl Hall were separated at birth!" - Ed H. "I was kind of skeptical when you told me that you recorded my songs acoustic style, but I just listened to them and I was very pleasantly surprised.", Emilio Castillo (leader of Tower Of Power). <http://music.danmcleanjr.com>
